Action to be Taken Report

1. Course Curriculum Feedback by Students

The feedback analysis reveals satisfactory results, underscoring notable strengths and positive trends within the evaluated criteria.

Recognize the importance of fostering a positive learning environment. Initiatives to inspire and motivate students, including guest lectures and extracurricular activities, to be reinforced.

The institute continues to prioritize hands-on experiences and exposure to industry practices. It is suggested to expand the range of workshops and seminars to provide students with a well-rounded understanding of the architectural field.

Thanking You,

Academic team

3. Course Curriculum Feedback by Alumni

- The feedback analysis reveals satisfactory results, underscoring notable strengths and positive trends within the evaluated criteria.
- The feedback serves as a crucial component in our commitment to continuous improvement, and we value their perspectives as important stakeholders in the ongoing development of our programs.
- While the feedback is largely satisfactory, we recognize the importance of continuous enhancement. As part of our commitment to excellence, we propose to initiate a detailed review of specific suggestions made by alumni to identify areas for refinement. This process will involve collaboration with faculty members, industry experts, and curriculum development specialists.
